MOTION TO DISMISS
NON-EXISTENT PARTY

07-CV-6351T(P)

Appearing solely to request dismissal of non-existent party "Random Technologies, LLC.", I submit to the court that "Random Technologies, LLC." does not exist as a legal entity (see the attached affidavit) and cannot, therefore, be a named party to this lawsuit. Therefore, in lieu of an Answer to Plaintiff's Amended Complaint on behalf of Random Technologies, LLC., defendant Gregory R. Warnes, respectfully moves the Court for an order dismissing non-existent party "Random Technologies, LLC."

To the extent that the Court believes that the company "Random Technologies, LLC." does exist, I request the opportunity to file an appropriate Answer on its behalf at a later time.

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF NEW YORK     )
                                  ) SS: COUNTY OF MONROE    )

Gregory R. Warnes, being duly sworn says:

It has come to my attention that the process of organizing and registering "Random Technologies, LLC." with the Department of Commerce of the State of New York, initiated in February 2007, was never completed. I have contacted the Department of Commerce and have confirmed that "Random Technologies, LLC." is not now, and never has been, a registered company in the State of New York. Consequently, "Random Technologies, LLC." does not exist as a legal entity.
